

Hutchison Travel Limited (formerly known as Hutchison-Priceline) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CK Hutchison Holdings Limited, a leading Hong Kong-based multinational conglomerate. In 2002, it launched the first full service online travel agency in Hong Kong with operations in Asia. It was then developed into one of the most trustworthy and competence travel brands in the region. With more than a decade of accumulated expertise, Hutchison Travel serves the travel markets in Hong Kong and across Asia by offering comprehensive travel services including air tickets, hotel rooms, car rental, air plus hotel packages, travel insurance and other travel related products. Hutchison Travel comprises a premier online travel agency “hutchgo.com” and a full service business travel management division “Hutchison Corporate Travel”. By gaining leverage from both the experience of the travel industry and the expertise of the e-commerce technologies, hutchgo.com (rebranded in June 2015) has been a top online travel agency in Hong Kong. It is committed to provide best-in-class service and assistance to travellers around the world.