

Graduate Trainee (Scheme “A”) (Ref: GT)

A comprehensive Scheme “A” Training will help you to become a professional engineer and to be the HKIE Corporate Member in a faster route. Join ATAL and explore your potentials.

Successful candidates will undergo HKIE accredited Scheme “A” Training Program in Building Services, Electrical, Mechanical, Environmental, Chemical or Energy Discipline. You will assist the project team from system design to project construction including tender estimation, planning, supervision and execution of site works.

The position provides all-rounded on-the-job training and coaching, job rotation across different business units (subject to training arrangement), alongside exciting and challenging career development opportunities.

Come and join us!

Requirements:

- Degree Holder or above in Building Services / Electrical / Mechanical / Environmental/ Chemical or Energy Engineering
- Good command of English and Chinese, both spoken and written
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Self-initiative, proactive, energetic and strong sense of responsibility

Interested parties please send your resume to career@atal.com.hk or by calling our Recruitment Ambassador at 2565 3429.

Please visit our website at <http://www.atalengineeringgroup.com> for more information about us.

Personal data collected will be treated in strictest confidentiality and used for recruitment related purposes only. We will retain your application and may refer it to other vacancies within the Group.