

About The Program

Our CBRE Hong Kong Internship Program is a paid internship that will immerse you into the real estate industry. You will enhance your skill set, be challenged with rigorous work, grow your network and drive meaningful change in our business.

Timeline

- Applications: Through 15 March 2018
- Interviews: March through end of April 2018, on a rolling basis.
- Internship: 8 weeks starting on 4 June 2018 or 9 July 2018

Based on your interests and experiences, you will be matched to, interview with, and work in an assigned business group for 8 weeks during the summer. You can view a list of example teams below. Interns may be considered for potential full-time opportunities based on their internship performance.

Area

Take a look at our fields of work here: <http://www.cbre.com.hk/EN/services/Pages/all-services.aspx>

Minimum Qualifications

You must be pursuing a full-time undergraduate program with an expected graduation date between December 2018 and December 2019. You will need to have a permanent HKID or a valid working visa in Hong Kong to apply for this program.

To ensure that you enjoy the full internship experience, you must be able to complete the 8-week program beginning 4 June 2018 or 9 July 2018.

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong interest in CBRE and the real estate industry
- Demonstrated critical thinking skills and independent motivation.
- Excellent project management, interpersonal and organizational skills, with the ability to drive and implement ideas in a changing environment.
- Analytical skills, and ability to solve highly strategic and difficult business problems.