

Fimmick Limited

Founded in 2008, Fimmick is an award-winning technology-based integrated digital marketing agency with offices in Hong Kong and Taiwan, and projects spanning the globe.

By combining innovative digital marketing strategies and revolutionary technologies, we aspire to maximise our clients brand's online footprint. We help our clients build sustainable and meaningful relationships with their customers with measurable results. We have worked with over 100 international and local clients, whether large organisations or SMEs, from a varied range of industries and sectors.

Fimmick's team, also known collectively as Fimmickers, boasts a considerable amount of expertise and talent. As digital pioneers, we combine passion, innovation and creativity, to develop digital marketing solutions for our clients to stay one step ahead of their competition. We provide Fimmickers with internal training and team-building activities to develop their knowledge and skills, and to sustain morale and productivity.
