

Operations Management Trainee

The 2-year training program aims to develop solid foundation for individuals towards the profession in container terminal operations management. This all-round program consists of industry & company inductions, classroom & practical training on technical and soft skills, and a comprehensive job rotation plan covering all functions of terminal operations, practical corporate projects and mentoring will be offered.

Requirements

We are inviting students of high caliber who possess the following requirements to join our programme:

- University graduate in any discipline (major in logistics, supply chain, operational research, industrial engineering is highly preferred)
- A strong desire to develop a professional career in the logistics industry
- Good team spirit and communication skills
- Good command of written and spoken English, Chinese and Putonghua

Planner Trainee

The incumbent will join a 12-month training program to develop solid foundation knowledge in container terminal operations. This all-round program consists of industry & company inductions, classroom & practical training, and a job attachment plan which covers various parts of operations functions.

The ideal candidate should possess:

- Higher Diploma or associate degree in any discipline (major in logistics or supply chain is highly preferred);
- A strong desire to develop a professional career in the logistics industry;
- Good team spirit and communication skills; and
- Proficient in written and spoken Cantonese, Putonghua and English;

Summer Internship Program 2018

WHAT ARE WE OFFERING?

Our 8-week tailor-made Summer Internship Program is blended with on-the-job training, project assignment, training workshop and port visit elements. Apart from enriching your work experience and preparing for your future career, you will also meet and work with students from various disciplines and institutes throughout this program.

Our program also partners with the Maritime and Aviation Internship Network under Maritime and Aviation Training Fund (MATF) of Transport and Housing Bureau of HKSAR Government. Eligible interns will have the opportunities to take part in the activities offered by MATF.

As a global logistics service provider, we offer opportunities in different functions:

- Accounting
- Engineering
- Information Technology
- Purchasing
- Terminal Operations

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Higher Diploma / Undergraduate students majoring in:

- Accounting
- Engineering – Automation / Electrical / Electronics / Mechanical / Mechatronic
- Purchasing
- Computer Studies / Information Technology / Information Systems
- Logistics Management / Supply Chain Management