

One MIZUHO
Building the future with you

Mizuho Financial Group

Careers

Mizuho Bank

Graduate Analysts Program

Mizuho Bank offers a 2-year rotation program, which provides a unique opportunity to build your banking knowledge and professional skills as you develop your career at Mizuho Bank. The program delivers in-depth industry training, one-on-one mentorship and rotations across front-to-back office.

Upon completion of the program, you will be posted to Corporate Banking Department as a Relationship Manager or Credit Analyst based on your interest, background and business needs.

Relationship Manager

Develop and manage the business relationship with our corporate and institutional clients including HK/PRC large corporates, MNC, financial institutions and public sector. Identify customer's need and closely collaborate with product specialists to provide optimal banking solutions to our clients.

Credit Analyst

Conduct in-depth financial analysis, cash flow modeling and industry research. Review and assess clients' credit risk rating, and closely monitor credit commitment to identify potential credit issues.

Mizuho Securities Asia

Graduate Analysts Program

Mizuho Securities Asia (MHSA) offers full-time graduate analyst program runs from mid-June every year. As a Graduate Analyst, you will work in a fast-growing financial institution in one of the following areas: Equities Sales / Trading, Research, Fixed Income Sales / Trading or Investment Banking.

During our Graduate Analyst Program, you will receive excellent learning and advancement opportunities through dedicated support from managers and on-the-job training. You will be immersed in our training program, which includes a range of technical skills and business knowledge trainings.

MHSA believes that personal development is equally crucial, thus, you will be paired with a business leader who will provide on-going guidance and support throughout the program. The program will develop your financial skills, knowledge and capabilities, and as such, we will become partners in your future success in this industry.

Summer Internship Program

Our 8-week Summer Internship Program provides you with a valuable opportunity to work in a fast-growing financial institution in one of the following areas: Equities Sales / Trading, Research, Fixed Income Sales / Trading or Investment Banking.

During the program, you will receive excellent learning opportunities through dedicated support from managers and on-the-job training. You will be immersed in our initial training program, which includes a range of technical skills and business knowledge trainings.

Through social and professional networking events, you will meet senior managers, colleagues and peers across the bank at all levels, which will add new insights and fresh perspectives to your understanding of what we do, and equip you to thrive at Mizuho Securities Asia.

Job Opportunities

Over 900 offices and 60,000 experts worldwide

The Americas

Europe, the Middle East and Africa

Asia and Oceania

Japan