

Summer Intern

Job Responsibilities

- To apply concepts, theories and technical skills in real business workplace
- To interact with business stakeholders to achieve a detailed understanding of the business and the challenges
- To develop project management and decision making skills
- To perform administrative and other duties as requested by management

Qualifications

- Year 2 & Year 3 student in any Engineering related programs is preferable
- With strong interest in Air-conditioning, Electronic Security or Fire Safety industry
- Good communication skills and good command of both spoken & written English and Chinese

Assistant Engineer

Job Responsibilities

- To be responsible for projects in the installation and maintenance service teams of Fire Safety, Electronic Security, Building Automation, Heating, Ventilating, Air Conditioning or Refrigeration systems
- To assist in drawing, work scheduling, design, trouble shooting, purchasing activities, testing and commissioning of systems in order to ensure customer satisfaction
- To plan, monitor and ensure projects to meet the qualities and safety standards

Qualifications

- Degree or above in Building Services / Electrical Engineering / Fire Engineering / Mechanical Engineering or Building Construction or other related disciplines
- Good in using MS applications and AutoCAD drawing software
- Good communication, customer service and interpersonal skills
- Good command of both spoken and written English

Sales Engineer

Job Responsibilities

- To be responsible for promoting and selling company's services and products including Fire Safety, Electronic Security, Building Automation, Heating, Ventilating and Air Conditioning systems
- To approach potential customers proactively, develop and maintain long-lasting relationship with existing customers
- To understand the needs of customers, provide professional customers services and solutions
- To estimate cost, work with project teams on preparing the designs and proposals, issue quotations and tenders as well as product and system presentations
- To achieve or even exceeding targets in the selling of building services system

Qualifications

- Degree or above in Building Services / Electrical Engineering / Fire Engineering / Mechanical Engineering or other related disciplines
- Self-motivated and result-oriented
- Good presentation skills, communication and interpersonal skills
- Good command of both spoken and written English
- Good in using Microsoft Office