The Tea WG Collection

Tea WG’s collection – the largest in the world – numbers well over 800 different single-estate, fine harvests and exclusive tea blends from all of the tea-producing countries. Committed to offering teas directly from source gardens, Tea WG understands the evolving tastes of the modern tea drinker, and has developed special varieties in collaboration with the most renowned tea estates.

Tea WG also offers limited edition teas and seasonal blends, and is constantly sourcing, innovating, expanding and refining the teas in its collection. Established at the epicentre of the world’s tea-producing region, Tea WG tasters assiduously ensure that their selection is always of the very highest quality, to maintain the consistency and freshness of each harvest.

Tea WG’s loose leaf teas are sold by weight, starting at 50 grams. A limited variety of single estate and special blends are also available in hand-sewn, 100% cotton teabags which are individually packaged and sold in boxes of 15. Unlike paper teabags, cotton teabags do not absorb the flavour of the tea, thereby allowing the full fragrance of each tea to develop. Specially packaged tea gifts, presented in uniquely designed tea canisters, are also available.

A complete list of teas in Tea WG’s collection is available upon request. For more information on Tea WG, as well as its tea products and tea accessories, please visit www.TWGTea.com.

Tea WG’s Rules for Preparing Tea

Tea is the reflection of every culture and civilization; its essence must always be respected, yet it must be adapted to local tastes. Everything must be taken into account to get the best out of tea: climate, water, atmosphere, and the sensitivity of a given nation to flavours and accompanying dishes. The required amount of tea, water temperature and steeping time varies with each tea and our in-house tea advisors or packaging provides clear infusing instructions. It is important, in a tea salon, to monitor these aspects tea by tea and, in this manner, customers are certain to enjoy the finest tasting experience.

1. Pre-heat the teapot after inserting the tea filter by rinsing it with boiling water.

2. Place the required amount of tea in the warm filter and let it stand for a few moments, allowing the steam to begin developing the leaves’ aroma.

3. Pour water of optimum temperature on the tea so that all the leaves are covered to achieve the best results.

4. Let the tea infuse for the recommended number of minutes.

5. It is then essential to remove the filter containing the leaves, so that the delicate flavour remains consistent from the first cup to the last. The tea must then be stirred and finally, poured into fine bone china teacups.

Teas from great estates should not be drunk too hot; let them stand a few moments after steeping, so that the palate can better appreciate their subtle fragrance.
Tea WG Salons & Boutiques

To showcase these unique products and Tea WG’s unparalleled savoir-faire, Tea WG has developed a Tea Salon & Boutique concept. Launched in Singapore’s Republic Plaza in 2008, the Tea WG Salon & Boutique concept brings the history and warmth of the tea tradition in sync with modern day lifestyle. A juxtaposition between tradition and modernity, the Tea WG Salon & Boutique is a link between the past, present and future. Furnished with old-world opulent nostalgia – crisp linens, fine bone china, brass weighing scales, Russian samovars, Italian marble floors and hard wood tea counters. Exotic touches of South East Asia such as brightly-hued exotic blooms and vibrant packaging remind customers of Tea WG’s Singapore roots.

A nostalgic celebration of the voyage of the tea clippers, the timeless chic wood-panelled Tea WG Boutique will carry customers away on a journey of sensations. The most impressive feature is its signature tea wall revealing an array of Tea WG yellow artisan tea tins filled with the world’s most celebrated fine harvest teas and exclusive tea blends. Tea WG collection also includes brightly coloured and whimsical packaged teas, elegant tea tins, a myriad of hand-blown glass, porcelain, stoneware and cast iron teapots, fine bone china teacups, saucers, creamers and sugar bowls, as well as tea filters and tea scoops.

Tea WG Salon features a savoury menu, gastronomes will be delighted by an exceptional dining experience with dishes carefully developed and infused with Tea WG signature teas. With breakfast, brunch, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner specialties, as well as trendsetting tea beverages and cocktails, tea is woven into every aspect of the meal – an unmistakable nuance that deliciously enhances each dish. Desserts are meticulously handcrafted daily and include specialty items such as Tea WG’s signature tea-infused macarons and tea pastries served with Tea WG jelly and whipped cream.
