

AlphaSights, a leading provider of industry knowledge and insights, gives professionals in investment management, private equity, consulting firms, and corporations an edge in their competitive and fast-evolving markets. Leveraging up-to-the-minute industry data and a proprietary knowledge-search process, the company's 500+ business-minded employees connect professionals to the knowledge and insights they need to identify and assess opportunities, create value, and outthink the competition. AlphaSights has nine offices in eight countries and regularly ranks as one of the fastest growing companies in the world. For more information, visit alphasights.com.