

City Computing Limited

City Computing supports and services a wide range of information systems and products to commercial and industrial users in Hong Kong and Southern China regions.

Originated in 1993 by a dedicate group of system consultants and specialists, the company quickly established its reputation and a firm footing in specializing IBM software. Our consulting teams include system support specialists, application developers, web programmers, system analysts and project managers. We are an IT solution provider committed to working closely with our business clients and technology partners.

We have hundreds of major clients today and our principal goals are to meet the needs of those companies. In the IT industry the quick evolution and the criticality of IT solutions create lot of opportunities and significant challenges.

City Computing provides advanced technologies and methodologies as well as a long-term commitment to our relationships to our clients. Our team will continuously explore & provide the most advanced technological solutions to our prospective clients to make their operation efficient.

Our Mission: To Provide Quality & Innovative Services

Our Coverage: Hong Kong, Macau, Southern China Region including: Guangzhou, Dongguan, Panyu and Shenzhen and Southeast Asia region including: Thailand & Cambodia.