

Hong Kong Disneyland Resort brings the magic of a world-class entertainment experience to people of all ages. Hong Kong is home to the fifth Disney Resort in the world. The city's landscape and vibrant, diverse culture have inspired our Imagineers to create a variety of entertainment that is unique to Hong Kong Disneyland Resort.

Hong Kong Disneyland Resort is owned by a joint venture company, Hongkong International Theme Parks Limited, with shareholders, the Hong Kong Government and The Walt Disney Company. As of the end of fiscal 2015, the Hong Kong Government holds 53 per cent of shares in the company and The Walt Disney Company holds 47 per cent.

In addition to Main Street, U.S.A., Adventureland, Tomorrowland and Fantasyland, three new themed areas, Toy Story Land, Grizzly Gulch and Mystic Point, were opened in 2011, 2012 and 2013 respectively. More than 30 new attractions, as well as immersive and entertainment experiences were added, bringing the total number of attractions and experiences at Hong Kong Disneyland to more than 100. The park's physical footprint has increased by nearly 25 per cent. To date, Hong Kong Disneyland Resort has welcomed millions of Guests, both local and international, making it one of the top destinations in the region.
