

Hong Kong Economic Times Holdings Limited (HKET Group) is a diversified multi-media company, providing content and services in business domains of finance, property, lifestyle, human resources and education, across a range of quality media platforms. Apart from newspapers, magazines and book publishing, we also run a financial news agency, information and solutions business, as well as operating in businesses of recruitment advertising, training, and various lifestyle platforms.

Group Overview

