

About MHK:

McDonald's is one of the world's most renowned leading brands in quick service restaurant industry with over 15,000 staff in HK. Our mission not just about business, we offer our customers enjoyable dining experiences, and we actively participate in community activities to support those in need. We care about our staff and customer, we believe people are the most important resource in our company.

In McDonald's, we are here to provide you the Campus Programs launching in this 2019 fall intake. With the development we provide, your dedication to this career, we are looking forward to a distinctive change from our future talents bringing to McDonald's.

We have 2 programs in 2019 for University students in different segment to best develop your future career.