

About SF Express

SF Express (Hong Kong) was established in 1993 in Shunde, Guangdong. SF Express gained the qualification to be listed on the A share market on December 12, 2016 with the approval of China Securities Regulatory Commission. On February 24, 2017, SF officially changed its name to SF Holding.

Not only is SF Express one of China's leading comprehensive service providers in express logistics, she is also an intelligent logistics provider with the advantage of network scale. SF Express aims to provide customers with integrated and comprehensive logistics solutions.