

SF Express (Hong Kong) was established in 1993 in Shunde, Guangdong. SF Express gained the qualification to be listed on the A share market on December 12, 2016 with the approval of China Securities Regulatory Commission. On February 24, 2017, SF officially changed its name to SF Holding.

Not only is SF Express one of China's leading comprehensive service providers in express logistics, she is also an intelligent logistics provider with the advantage of network scale. SF Express aims to provide customers with integrated and comprehensive logistics solutions.

2019 Graduate Trainee (GT) / Operations Trainee (OT)

We provide a 1 year intensive induction program offering vital exposure throughout our core business areas. For GT program, you will participate in one of the 2 streams: Commerce Stream and General Support Stream. As for OT program, candidates will join our pre-designed frontline operations stream.

What we offer

- Invaluable exposure to logistics & supply chain industry
- Fast track to professional career development
- Comprehensive training workshops in developing project management, interpersonal and leadership skills
- Coaching and guidance provided by experienced mentors
- Smart Project that contribute to real business
- Site visit to China headquarters

Who we want

- Strong learning agility
- Excellent communication skills
- Integrity
- Positive thinking
- Team spirit
- Sense of Responsibility

Application Method

Applicants may apply by submitting their resume to recruit03@sf-express.com on or before 31 March 2019, and specify their applied Trainee Program in their email subject. If applicants choose to apply for our Graduate Trainee Program, please also rank your personal preference on the two professional streams in the email.

For more details, please visit our website http://www.sf-express.com/hk/tc/talent_recruitment/ or follow our Facebook to stay connected with us.