

Smart Trade Alliance

Our Smart Trade Alliance Program aims to provide students with a platform to build up their own business as well as providing the best way to achieve their career goal at Scanwell Logistics.

Company Overview

Scanwell Logistics is an international logistics firm which has been operating since 1981.

We have 3,500+ experts and 60+ offices worldwide where Hong Kong is our Headquarter.

We are currently expanding our business internationally with our Smart Trade Program which provides a diverse business scope in executing trade.

Company Package

- Scanwell provides training of product knowledge and sales techniques with attractive allowance.
- Scanwell provides a range of business support including sales & marketing, operation, administration for the candidates.
- Scanwell supports pre-approved marketing investments and expenses for candidates to reach their target customers.
- Scanwell supports any idea related to trading business and will consider offering related supports.

Requirements

- You are a highly motivated and ambitious person seeking for further personal development.
- You have a strong desire and passion in networking.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills.
- Good command of English, Cantonese and Mandarin.