CEDARS Peer Connect and High Table 2020
Important Notes and Reminders

ENROLLMENT AND CONFIRMATION
Enrolment is on a first-come-first-served basis until the quota is full. Priority will be given to full-time and full degree undergraduates. You MUST have a Zoom account registered with your personal email address (or the one provided by HKU) for joining all Zoom activities of CEDARS Peer Connect and High Table. CEDARS will send an admission email and Zoom invitation emails of respective activities to you at least one day prior to the dates of the activities. You are reminded to check both “Inbox” and “Junk” mail boxes in order not to miss important messages and announcements from CEDARS.

FULL COMMITMENT REQUIRED
CEDARS Peer Connect and High Table is best described as a ‘hands-on, minds-on experience’. Through an interactive and collaborative process, participants will acquire a holistic learning experience. Most segments of the Programme will build on the activities before and after. Not doing so create challenges not only to yourself but other participants. If you are unable to commit fully, you are advised to join other CEDARS induction activities which require less commitment.

PARTICIPATION
Students are expected to have active discussion and exchange in the activities of CEDARS Peer Connect and High Table. You are reminded to respect different cultures, beliefs and values to facilitate social integration and intellectual exchange.

WITHDRAWAL OR CHANGE OF ACTIVITY TIMESLOTS
Only under special circumstances are students allowed to withdraw from the Programme or make changes on your selected and assigned timeslots. In such case, you must notify CEDARS by email at induction@cedars.hku.hk at least three working days (or as far as possible) before your selected / assigned timeslots, so that your place can be offered to students on the waiting list.

ABSENCE WITHOUT NOTICE
If you are absent without prior notice, you will be accorded a lower priority in all other CEDARS activities in future.

PROGRAMME FEE AND REDEMPTION OF GREEN GOWNS
A green gown will be given to participants upon cash payment of programme fee (HK$100) and satisfactory completion of the compulsory activities (i.e. Part II, Part III and Part V) including a learning experience questionnaire. Eligible students will receive emails on redemption details in due course.
