

About AlphaSights

As trusted knowledge partner to many of the world's leading investment funds, professional services firms and global corporations, AlphaSights sits at the nexus of today's knowledge economy. We provide our clients with access to deep industry knowledge worldwide by connecting them with highly relevant Expert Advisors. Each month, we set up over 3,000 consultations between our clients and Expert Advisors from all sectors and geographies, managed out of our offices in London, New York, Hong Kong, Seoul and Dubai.

AlphaSights is a high-growth information services firm working alongside the world's leading investment funds, strategy consultancies and global corporations. Operating out of global knowledge hubs in London, New York, Hong Kong and Dubai, our Analysts work together seamlessly to identify and engage the right experts in response to our clients' unique business challenges.

AlphaSights Asia: The Vision

The Hong Kong office was founded at the end of 2011 and continues to double in size every year. Globally, AlphaSights is on the cusp of reaching critical mass and we have exciting plans for growth in Asia. For those who join our Hong Kong office now, the opportunity exists to directly drive client growth and regional expansion. Our mission is twofold; to help today's business leaders succeed and to build a world-class firm that inspires and develops the business leaders of tomorrow. We look for confident, curious and team-orientated individuals with the initiative and drive to make things happen and help us achieve this.