

NTK Academic Group 德勤教育集團

NTK Learning Center • NTK Educational Consulting • NTK Publishing

Established in 1996, NTK Academic Group is Hong Kong's leading educational service provider for students following international curricula. Our vision is to assist students in achieving academic excellence and lifelong success through quality education: well-designed lesson content, small-class teaching environment, effective learning facilities, and guidance from our professional academic teams.

Over the years, NTK has invested time and resources to train countless university graduates to be subject specialists and educators through its well-established, comprehensive and rigorous training programs. Currently, NTK has over 80 highly qualified full-time teachers from Ivy League and other elite universities worldwide. NTK's school campus is located at the prime commercial area of Hong Kong. A spacious 25,000 square feet campus accommodating over 80 classrooms, science laboratory and study areas offers a pleasant working environment to our staff members.
