

Job description

There will be two programmes you would be considered for:

Hospitality Programme

Customer service and front office team

Sales and marketing team

Housekeeping team

Revenue management team

You will have rotations across all operational departments including hands-on experience and time spent at our properties and also head office. You will also be able to work on special projects with our other internal teams including finance, procurement and human resources as and when they arise.

Real Estate and Development Programme

Project management team

Leasing, Sales and marketing team

You will be able to work with leading architects and designers in their respective fields of expertise, and also learn the construction, financing and development aspects.

We offer talented enthusiastic graduates a comprehensive training