

Wonderful Sky Financial Group (WSFG)(01260.HK), a well-established and listed public relations and financial consultant company. We principally engaged in the provision of Financial PR services in Hong Kong, providing Four-In-One professional service, integrating public relations, investor relations, international roadshow and financial printing services. Wonderful Sky Financial Group is a leading player in H share Financial Communications market. The Company has been providing financial PR services for numerous H share companies listed on the Main Board. It is a pioneer in introducing professional financial PR services to the PRC. We acknowledge the condition of PRC companies, their corporate communication culture and operation environment, fully understand customers' needs, and formulate tailor-made professional services with high quality and value-added services.

Our Human Resources Management philosophy is to maximize each talent's competence to the fullest. Career path in our company includes professional development into one of the dual channels of "Management Rank" and "Specialist Rank", in which each talent will be engaged in a set of talent management programs such as mentoring, professional training, career counseling and performance management. Our "Wonderful Sky Business School" offers various professional training programs in fields of public relations know-hows, corporate systems, professional skills, business etiquette etc. in order to train up our talents into seasoned industry experts. We also emphasize "Reward for Talents", giving out recognition and awards such as best employee awards, and different career development opportunities such as promotions and act in the role of mentor, and all this evaluation is based on the KPI each person get every month.